RE: ANNOUNCEMENT – Interim Vice Principal of T. A. Norris Middle School

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Jeralee Neufeld as Interim Vice Principal of T. A. Norris Middle School.

Mrs. Neufeld has been a teacher at T. A. Norris Middle School since 2013. Her initial assignment was grade 6 English Language Arts, Social Studies, Music, and grades 6-8 Band and Exploratories.

In 2021, Jeralee was assigned the role of Inclusive Education Coach at T. A. Norris Middle School and has been attaining leadership experience through her position by facilitating professional development and instructional coaching to teachers and educational assistants and collaborating with Learning Support Teams, and outside support agencies to provide optimal programming for students. She has a passion for creating positive, supportive, and inclusive environments for all students and staff.

Jeralee received her Bachelor of Education and Bachelor of Physical Education from the University of Alberta in 2013 and recently completed her Master of Education from the University of Alberta.

Jeralee brings compassion, a caring attitude, and leadership skills to her new role. T. A. Norris Middle School and the school division will benefit from her leadership.

Congratulations Jeralee!

Sincerely,

Adam Murray
Superintendent of Schools
